OFFICE OF THE DEWAN OF MYSORE,
Dated Bangalore, 4th May 1900.

OFFICIAL MEMORANDUM.

In connection with the approaching marriages at Mysore of His Highness the Maharaja and of the Third Princess, the following instructions are issued:—

(1) The Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, and President, Municipal Commission, should make suitable arrangements for pandals, decorations and illumination in the Mysore City.

(2) He should likewise see to the arrangements required on the occasion of the Procession.

(3) He should further arrange, at the cost of the Government, for the feeding of all classes of the poor and for the distribution of cloths to those in real need of them.

(4) He should also provide (at the cost of the Government) dinners to persons of all classes other than Brahmins, causing them to be specially invited to such Dinners.

(5) Lastly, he should pay special attention to all necessary measures of sanitation in the City and its neighbourhood. This is a matter of very great importance and should receive the immediate and personal attention of the President, Vice-President, Municipal Commissioners and the Board's employés.

2. It is understood that the Municipal Board of the Mysore City have voted the liberal grant of Rs. 10,000 for expenses connected with items (1), (2) and (5) above. Government have no doubt that with this large sum at his disposal and the voluntary co-operation of the public as regards items Nos. (1) and (2), the President will be able to carry out everything necessary in a manner which would leave nothing to be desired. To assist him and the Vice-President in making the needful arrangements and ensuring the timely and satisfactory execution of the needful works, Government desire that they should associate themselves with a committee of such Municipal Commissioners and official and non-official members as may be selected by them and also invite generally the hearty co-operation of the citizens of the place.

3. To meet the cost of items (3) and (4), sums of Rs. 4,000 and 6,000 respectively are sanctioned. The expenditure should be duly accounted for to the Government.

4. A report of action taken should be submitted as quickly as possible.

By Order,
C. SREENIVASAIENGAR,
Secretary to Government,
General and Revenue Departments.

To—The Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, and President, Mysore Municipality.
The Comptroller, Mysore Government.
